SUBJECT: CPC IGNITE CHILDREN'S CONFERENCE UPDATES

The Children Ministry has important information specifically for the Ignite Children's Conference, which in March was defer due to covid19. You are advice to take note of the information highlighted in this circular so that each District and Local Church member who have registered for this event will prepare and organize accordingly within the months of June, July and August before September 2020.

Registration for this event has closed and we are no longer accepting late registrations because the quota and resources for the giveaway packs have been organize according to the expected quota.

1. Ignite Children's Conference dates 2020

The revised date for the Ignite Children's Conference will be from the 23 to 26 September 2020. The Ignite Children's Conference will take place at Bautama Mission ground.

2. Criteria for Personal and Church Registered Participants attendance.

Covid19 has brought about important health rules on Personal Hygiene and Social Distancing therefore we take into considerations these important precautionary safety measures and would therefore advise churches that have registered participants more than five [5] to decrease the number of their participants to five [5] only.

Churches who have registered below five [5] can increase to five [5] participants for each local church and company/branch church who have registered. [Company churches who have registered separately will attend]

Those who have done Personal Registration and attached to a local church will be fully resource with the Resources provided for the Ignite Conference.
